RURAL DEVELOPMENT IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

28 May 2013

Hotel Hollywood, Sarajevo

Project financed by EU

ABOUT ACoRD

ACoRD – Alliance for Common Rural Development is project financed by European Union within „Civil Society Facility Programme 2012“. Project ACoRD is implemented by ACED – Agency for Cooperation, Education and Development from Banja Luka as leading organisation in cooperation with local partners REDAH from Mostar, Nešto Više from Sarajevo, LAG Una-Sana from Sanski Most, and European partner ELARD – European LEADER Association for Rural Development from Brussels.

Main goals of the project are establishment of Rural Development Network and building of capacities of organisations, members of the Network. Implementation of the project will last until December 2014. Within that time, project envisages numerous activities, such as research that will encompass all relevant policies from areas of agriculture and rural development in BaH and their harmonisation with EU policies, organisation of Rural Parliament, etc.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Aims of the Conference are to introduce participants with ACoRD project and current situation in rural development in Bosnia and Herzegovina, as well as with practices of neighbouring countries that will be presented by guests from the region and two European organisations – ELARD and PREPARE.

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION INFO

Accommodation for 30 participants will be provided in double rooms (overnight on 27 May). Only those participants that travel from locations further than 180 km from Sarajevo are eligible for overnight stay. Organisers kindly ask all participants interested in accommodation to register as early as possible due to the limited number of overnights.

Please apply for participation by filling in and sending the attached registration form.
